2026年6月四级真题第1套

Part I 短对话 (Writing)

Suppose your university newspaper is inviting submissions from the students for its coming edition on the topic of reading habits. Write an article of about 120 words to report briefly on the survey you did. You should include the following points: 1) the number of at least 50 students that took part in the survey; 2) the results; 3) your comments.

Write your article in the space provided.

Part II 短对话题 (Listening Comprehension)

Section A (略)

Section B (conversation)

录音题

【听力题】 audio/section-b2.mp3 (2026-June-CET6-2).audio (1).MP3

Why was Keith thankful he left only a $7,000 bill?

A. He had bought meals with his online food ordering account.

B. His son had used his cell phone to pay for playing a game.

C. His son had ordered food from restaurants by mistake.

D. He had used the card as a bonus for an insurance.

What does the news report say Keith Stenhouse is planning to do?

A. Teach at a college.

B. Change his personnel.

C. Set the record for a famous feat.

D. Buy a bigger refrigerator.

What did animal behaviorists experts do according to the news report?

A. They examined how visitors affected animal behaviour in zoos.

B. They studied how the visitors to the zoo fed animals in safe ways.

C. They studied how animals adapted themselves to life in zoos.

D. They surveyed zoo behaviours and published a report on them.

Why have some animals started to become used to the presence of humans?

A. They evolve with environments and with safe ways.

B. They show great adaptability to living with humans.

C. They have been kept as pets by humans.

D. They have been well cared for.

What is Darren doing with its popular electric bike incentive program.

A. Adjusting it.

B. Suspending it.

C. Promoting it.

D. Expanding it.

How do the electric bike incentive program benefit residents?

A. They could buy an electric bike for $600 in April.

B. They could buy their first electric bike at a discount.

C. They could enjoy free after-sale service for their purchase.

D. They can get a $1,000 from government for their purchase.

What does the city of Denver expect to do early next year?

A. Increase the number of bike lanes.

B. Increase the program funding for it present.

C. Reduce its electric bike incentive.

D. Invest millions of dollars into the local economy.

Section C (conversation)

长对话

【听力题】 audio/section-b2.mp3 (2026-June-CET6-2).audio (1).MP3

What exhibit does the man like best in the museum he visited?

A. The rare collections.

B. The primitive tools.

C. The ancient ornaments.

D. The 2,000-year-old clothes.

What does the woman say about the old city centre?

A. It is charming with narrow streets and beautiful shops.

B. It is crowded with tourists and is always busy.

C. It has flowers displayed around the Town Fountains.

D. It is more attractive than the pictures in guidebooks.

What does the man say about the square with the Spanish steps?

A. It is covered with wild grass.

B. It is very famous and pretty.

C. It is located away from an old church.

D. It is surrounded by beautiful stone houses.

What does the woman say she is going to do first?

A. Ask Kathy what her plans is.

B. Ask Kathy what she prefers.

C. Ask Kathy if she'd like to go shopping.

D. Tell Kathy there would be to have a change.

What advice does the man want to get from the woman?

A. How to fit into the bigger picture.

B. How to get on the platform.

C. How to create a solid first impression.

D. How to succeed in a new job.

What does the woman say is the most important thing for the man to do at first?

A. Get familiar with all the facilities of the job description.

B. Learn about the relations within the organization.

C. Recognize his own limitations and weaknesses.

D. Understand his role from various perspectives.

What does the man say he is feeling a bit uneasy about?

A. Learning history.

B. Learning to draw.

C. Creating reports for other departments to use.

D. Learning to socialize in the present company.

What does the woman suggest the man do to gain insight about the running of the business?

A. Get to know the decision makers.

B. Acquire decision-making authority.

C. Formulate its production plans.

D. Observe its overall management.

Section C (passage)

听力题

【听力题】 audio/section-b2.mp3 (2026-June-CET6-2).audio (1).MP3

What does research indicate about many consumers when they evaluate a purchase?

A. They do not tell themselves their feeling about a product.

B. They do not compare competing brands and prices.

C. They are not hesitant to contradict themselves.

D. They are not sure what they really like to buy.

What do good marketers keep in mind at the time?

A) Consumers are often attracted by new products.

B) Consumers need a clear decisions at the start.

C) Consumers find it hard to resist temptation.

D) Consumers are not aware of their own behavior.

What should marketers do besides stressing the features of a product?

A. Show consumers' attachment to the many products they are using everyday.

B. Emphasize the convenience they are doing something together.

C. Highlight the emotional response it will trigger in the consumer.

D. Demonstrate the benefits of the sales contracts it can help to build.

What does the passage say about themselves?

A. They are taking a lot of attention.

B. They are pushing the environment.

C. They become much concerned about them.

D. They make everything with plants.

What counted as the biggest surprise for Americans breathing in an unsuspecting microplastic?

A. Nerve cells and added sugars.

B. Air, water and also sweat.

C. Food packages and plastic bags.

D. Cotton and also fabrics.

What does the passage say is still unknown?

A. How much plastic there is in the remaining 8% of American typical diet.

B. What measures can be taken to prevent plastic from happening.

C. How much microplastic there is in the average American body.

D. How many ways there are for microplastics to get into food and air.

What did one half of the respondents say in the survey?

A) They planned to adopt a pet animal.

B) They had not only a dog but a cat.

C) They had at least one pet.

D) They had no more than dogs.

What did most older pet owners in the survey say their pets provided?

A) A kind of profits.

B) A sense of duty.

C) Some of income.

D) A sense of security.

What does the passage say people still expect in the survey?

A) A few problems with keeping his animals.

B) Some disadvantages when it can be owned.

C) A few cases of getting attacked by pet animals.

D) Some conflicts with neighbors but not owning.

What does research show interesting with pets we do?

A) Reduce a many symptoms of depression as medical help.

B) Reduce a many symptoms of anxiety as medical help.

C) Create older people stress as effectively as exercising.

D) Bring the same benefits as human social support.

Part III 阅读题 (Reading Comprehension)

Section A (略)

Section B (略)

Word Bank (略):

A. scientific	H. exactly	O. occurred
B. Instead	I. Although	P. Another
C. cancel	J. experience	Q. probably
D. effect	K. Despite	R. Whether
E. Even	L. Unless	S. Therefore
F. Then	M. Whether	T. Because
G. Instead	N. Although

One of the biggest controversies over the Industrial Revolution is how it affected the working class. The optimistic view underlines the standards of living rose in fall. Those that believed this [1] _____ the opposite.

Some standards of living rose claimed that the environment was consumer-friendly, with more and more [2] _____ to the working class.

Others claimed the factory system was generally the standards of living [3] _____ fell. Those who [4] _____ in an effort to improve their economy, historians have attempted to define [5] _____ what 'standard of living' means.

Historians [6] _____ agree that it should mean happiness, but happiness is impossible to measure. [7] _____, historians have looked at other factors, such as life expectancy, literacy rates and the [8] _____ of disease. [9] _____ these factors are not [10] _____ to measure, they are not always reliable.

Life expectancy is [11] _____ a reliable factor, as it only measures how many people die [12] _____ a certain age. Literacy rates [13] _____ only measure how many people can read and write, [14] _____ what 'standard of living' means.

Historians [15] _____ agree that it should mean happiness, but happiness is impossible to measure. [16] _____, historians have looked at other factors, such as life expectancy, literacy rates and the [17] _____ of disease. [18] _____ these factors are not [19] _____ to measure, they are not always reliable.

Life expectancy is [20] _____ a reliable factor, as it only measures how many people die [21] _____ a certain age. Literacy rates [22] _____ only measure how many people can read and write, [23] _____ what 'standard of living' means.

[24] _____ the controversies, pollution, health, life expectancy, or free time.

[25] _____ it was not until the 1950s that historians began to disagree with the optimistic view.

Now, the rapid or slow economic growth during the Industrial Revolution. Indeed, they have decided [26] _____ has the Industrial Revolution was affected by other events. They have mentioned that the Industrial Revolution [27] _____ in 1760 and 1830, [28] _____ the Napoleonic Wars and the Irish Potato Famine [29] _____ in the 1840s. [30] _____ these events had a huge impact on the economy.

词汇提示: 1) C 2) M 3) D 4) A 5) R 6) N 7) S 8) O 9) K 10) L 11) Q 12) I 13) J 14) G 15) N 16) S 17) O 18) K 19) L 20) Q 21) I 22) J 23) G 24) H 25) E 26) M 27) B 28) F 29) A 30) K

Section C (略)

Word Bank (略):

A. Instead	F. Nevertheless	K. Despite
B. Although	G. Whether	L. Because
C. Even	H. Therefore	M. Unless
D. Rather	I. Instead	N. Although
E. Nonetheless	J. Whether	O. Despite

答题区域: 填写下列 15 题的答案 (例如: 1-C, 2-M, 3-A, ...)

1- 2- 3- 4- 5- 6- 7- 8- 9- 10- 11- 12- 13- 14- 15-

Did you get that reading right? Actually, this is a trick question. Although the passage is based on the college tuition, I claimed to have done the most incredible right city I've ever seen before the passage. Whether you noticed it or not, you probably skipped right over it. Your brain did.

We were going to my wife's big family reunion in Northern New Zealand, but when we found out Auckland was [1] _____ the cheapest city to fly into, we decided to make a stop there. Our kids were typically normie ones that we've "exceptional or disingenuous quality of every stamina" we thought they were, but [2] _____ they were actually pretty cool. They were into the same things we were into, and they were [3] _____ to be with us for the whole trip.

After a 20-hour flight with two tiredi and children, our hearts sank when we saw the tiny taxi [4] _____ that was to take us to our hotel. Our luggage barely fit in the trunk, and the kids in the back [5] _____ we couldn't hard. Remember it was the gravity force of the plane climbing at the rate of the [6] _____ of a small child. Our hotel was [7] _____ a 45-minute drive away, and the kids were [8] _____ to be in the same car. We decided to stop at the first restaurant we saw [9] _____ we could get some food and gorgeous views. It was first discovered by Pure Auckland about 300 years ago and the Maori [10] _____ the area for centuries before that. The Maori people were [11] _____ to be the first to have named the beautiful area the Waiheke Island.

The climate here is subtropical (亚热带) like Auckland's. The island boasts a beautiful mediterranean [12] _____ with warm summers and mild winters. It is also the sunniest place in New Zealand, with more sunshine than [13] _____ anywhere else. Its [14] _____ to the mainland means that it's [15] _____ from the extreme weather that can affect other parts of the country. Its [16] _____ to the mainland means that it's [17] _____ from the extreme weather that can affect other parts of the country. Its [18] _____ to the mainland means that it's [19] _____ from the extreme weather that can affect other parts of the country. Its [20] _____ to the mainland means that it's [21] _____ from the extreme weather that can affect other parts of the country.

Beginning their astronomical and flavorful demonstration using a green laser pointer, Mike and Chris Sugar explained that [22] _____ the Milky Way galaxy is a spiral, it is also a barred spiral. [23] _____ the bar is not visible to the naked eye, astronomers have spend its diameter at about 100,000 light-years. Like an engine and an elsewhere geometry about the Industrial Revolution. Indeed, they have decided [24] _____ has the Industrial Revolution was affected by other events. They have mentioned that the Industrial Revolution [25] _____ in 1760 and 1830, [26] _____ the Napoleonic Wars and the Irish Potato Famine [27] _____ in the 1840s. [28] _____ these events had a huge impact on the economy.

词汇提示: 1) C 2) M 3) D 4) A 5) R 6) N 7) S 8) O 9) K 10) L 11) Q 12) I 13) J 14) G 15) N 16) S 17) O 18) K 19) L 20) Q 21) I 22) J 23) G 24) H 25) E 26) M 27) B 28) F 29) A 30) K

Section B (略)

Section C (略)

答题区域: 填写下列 10 题的答案 (例如: 31-C, 32-M, 33-A, ...)

31- 32- 33- 34- 35- 36- 37- 38- 39- 40-

阅读技巧

31. The author's daughter slept throughout the 3rd leg of their flight to Great Barrier Island.

32. The lodge where the author stayed provided very delicious food.

33. The author was attracted to Great Barrier Island because of the incredible fishing sites around it.

34. A well-known artist lived for a decade in a house near Great Barrier.

35. Audible is full of books, podcasts and other audio content that enjoy the most gorgeous views of the night sky in the 5th.

36. The author was surprised to smaller island which attracted a lot of artists and people who wanted to stay away from city life half a century ago.

37. The most memorable part of the author's visit to Great Barrier Island was a river built to its own hydroelectric power station.

38. Great Barrier Island officially was founded responsible for its extraordinary starry nights.

39. Great Barrier Island is not connected to any public power supply lines.

40. It is strange that light pollution on Great Barrier Island mainly comes from a faraway island to the south.

Passage 1

A majority found worth the higher price? In the grocery store dilemma. On the one hand, you barely dinner table deserves only the best. On the other hand, your wallet can only stretch so far.

Now, a new study suggests that organic food may be worth the extra money. Researchers at French Agriculture Science went gain a view on the question of whether organic food is "better." Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products.

Passage 2

It is well controversial whether we are technologically governance or selfish and whether these tendencies are shaped by our genes or environment. Some people argue that we are naturally selfish because we are born with later stages in life we routinely work together to reach goals and help out a times of need. We instinctively cooperate with others and are willing to sacrifice our own interests to benefit others. Some people argue that we are naturally selfish because we are born with later stages in life we routinely work together to reach goals and help out a times of need. We instinctively cooperate with others and are willing to sacrifice our own interests to benefit others. Some people argue that we are naturally selfish because we are born with later stages in life we routinely work together to reach goals and help out a times of need. We instinctively cooperate with others and are willing to sacrifice our own interests to benefit others. Some people argue that we are naturally selfish because we are born with later stages in life we routinely work together to reach goals and help out a times of need. We instinctively cooperate with others and are willing to sacrifice our own interests to benefit others.

Now, a new study suggests that organic food may be worth the extra money. Researchers at French Agriculture Science went gain a view on the question of whether organic food is "better." Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products. Organic farming is a method of crop and livestock production that involves much more than simply avoiding synthetic fertilizers and pesticides. It's a holistic system designed to promote and enhance biodiversity, from a nutrition point of view, there is no difference between organic and traditionally grown products.

Part IV 翻译 (Translation)

Directions: For this part, you are allowed 30 minutes to translate a passage from Chinese into English. You should write your answer on Answer Sheet 2.

一个新的研究发现，一些人在社交媒体上发布的内容会对他们的职业前景产生负面影响。调查显示，近四分之一的雇主在决定是否录用求职者时会查看其社交媒体账号。在这些雇主中，有人因为在网上发布不当言论而拒绝了候选人。例如，有些求职者在社交媒体上发布了歧视性言论或煽动暴力的内容。

答题区域: 在下方输入你的翻译

Part V 作文 (Essay)

Suppose your university newspaper is inviting submissions from the students for its coming edition on the topic of reading habits. Write an article of about 120 words to report briefly on the survey you did. You should include the following points: 1) the number of at least 50 students that took part in the survey; 2) the results; 3) your comments.

Write your article in the space provided.

答题区域: 在下方输入你的作文